PROJECT HOT SPOTS COMPLETED

Project Hot Spots 94 day healing project was completed on 11/11. I take this date as a "thank you" sign if not more.

PROJECT HOT SPOTS COMPLETED

When I do the projected calculations for these projects I ask how many days it would take to make a 10% difference with each healer doing 1 healing per day. This of course is ideal and is the easiest way to project.

We each have busy lives so realistically not all healers are able to do one healing per day. There are vacations, illness and busy schedules. I would rather calculate it this way, striving for the best, instead of figure it on the least amount. There are some of you that do more than one healing per day, which is absolutely wonderful.

PYRAMIDS OF GIZA (The Story Continues)

We were striving to make a 10% difference in 94 days, and the difference was 8% which I don't consider bad at all considering that not all healers were able to do 1 healing per day. I am so proud of what we are doing - we have a chance to make a difference and we're doing it!!!!!!

FIRST PLACE: Michelle Ruhland with the most healings.
SECOND PLACE: Goes to Laurie Mort.
THIRD PLACE: A tie between Phyllis Martin and Tami Driver.

A huge THANK YOU to all of you, for all that you do and all that you are!!!!!!

PYRAMIDS OF GIZA

This has been such a rapidly developing story that it's almost hard to keep up with. During the Tuesday night Circles that some of us attend, details about Pyramids began to emerge on a rather regular basis.

Then after the Circle on September 1, I was asked by the guides to include the Pyramids of Giza in the healings and I also, at that time, did two channelings on this subject which were included in the Newsletter.

On November 6, I had a past life regression, the summary of which I included in the last Newsletter. To say it was mind boggling is an understatement. A friend e-mailed me a link to a book that had just been published in September, "Beneath the Pyramids" by author Andrew Collins, and published by A.R.E.(Edgar Cayce's Organization) There was also a link to a two part video, by this same man explaining his experiences and findings. In part 2 he spoke of "Emerald tablets" which blew me away, because that is what I had "seen" in the past life regression.

On November 10, during meditation I received messages that I had no idea as to the meaning," knoll, steps, winter equinox". Then I was shown 3 Pyramids and from the middle Pyramid an underground passageway/cave angling out to the right and messages to do healing on the caves. As I watched the cave filled with white light. Then I began to receive messages of "send it off, don't be hesitant, don't rationalize." As if all this wasn't enough, during a healing 15 minutes later I heard over and over, "craggy outcropping near the stone steps".

When I awoke the next morning, I had a feeling of heaviness. I rationalized I was just tired. I began putting it all together from the night before and realized that I was supposed to send this information to someone. Then more information "came to me" and I realized I was to send it to Andrew Collins, the author, because he is actively seeking the "Hall of Records".

I wasn't going to do this until the feeling of heaviness became worse, and worse and worse. At that point I realized Spirit was not going to take no for an answer. I grabbed my laptop and wrote him a brief e-mail about my past life regression. He immediately answered me. He wanted to read the entire transcript of my regression.

At this point I have had several e-mails from him. Below is the type of information he is looking for:

"I am looking not just for clues, words, names, sites, but also patterns of information.

Watch dreams and note down thoughts, feelings, ideas, strange words, anything that you think might be relevant to this quest.

Also ask other light-workers to take part in this process, even if to generate the necessary healing energy to keep things going".

" Here are some pressing questions:

1. What awaits discovery in the deeper parts of Giza's cave underworld?
2. Where exactly is its course?
3. Other than the sites found so far, are there any other entrances?
4. Any strange names or words connected with the cave underworld?
5. Anything specifically that can help me better understand the nature of the cave underworld?
6. What will happen in the future? Is there a timeline?" (End of excerpt)

So this is our chance to help find the "Hall of Records". How cool and important is that? Finding the "Hall of Records" and the information within, could change all of humanity for now and for future generations. I feel honored that he has asked us to do this.

If anything comes to you, please e-mail it to me and I will send it to him.

Please be thinking of what you would like to heal for the next project. I will be sending another Newsletter mid-week.

I think the fact that we have been asked to take part in Andrew Collin's "Questing" is a real honor and I'm very excited!!
