A CHRISTMAS VISION

A CHRISTMAS VISION

DPH GUIDES

In order to create peace, we each must do our part. A path has been carved. A path created by the tears of hundreds of generations. Of hundreds of generations of those wanting peace but not understanding how to create it, not understanding how their actions were creating the opposite of peace. Generations not understanding how their hate and their selfishness, retribution, their lack of love, compassion, goodness and caring, each for the other, created terrible wars, chaos and this litany of tears.

THANK YOU!

Humanity by not understanding what they are doing, have been causing this terrible chaos and suffering; families torn apart, children losing their mothers and fathers, dreadful consequences, all because of a lack of understanding. A lack of understanding of how God played such an important role in their lives; not understanding about God. Allowing others to distort the facts over the years, to distort what was true about God.

REQUEST

All this time, all this horror, all this agony, because of lack of understanding, because all the truths known in the beginning were forgotten and pushed aside for power, for greed. Humanity not understanding how cooperating with each other, how loving each other, how having compassion for each other would help mesh, help solidify the peace of the planet.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

Now is the time. Now is the time when humanity will know again. They have begun to realize, they have begun to come out of their long dream, their long period of not knowing, of not understanding and now some are beginning to awaken. As some begin to awaken, more and more awaken, and so it goes.

There is one more thing that needs to happen before humanity awakens fully. This is finding the information from their past and knowing what their beginnings were, knowing what truly happened. Not what someone told them happened. Not what someone who didn't know the truth and made up rules and history, said happened. Humanity needs to know the whole truth and by knowing the whole truth this will bring them out of their dream. Because when they hear the truth they will begin to remember, it will begin to awaken them. They will feel bits and pieces of acknowledgement, bits and pieces of remembrance and as they do, they will begin to awaken. As they awaken and as they hear more, more will awaken.

This is what it will take, that knowledge. This is crucial that this knowledge is found and that people are apprised of this news and that the world knows of this. This is what will create world peace, the peace of the planet. To find this knowledge is finding a key to the missing past of humanity, the missing link which will bring everything together. This will cause minds to be ignited in acknowledgement. It will cause cell memories to be stirred and remembered. It is crucial. It is necessary. This is the way it was planned and this is the way it will be and you have the power.

You have the power to bring this about, to make it happen, to create this, to bring this into reality. You have this power. This is how it was planned and this is the way it will be. There is much help from this side because we are partners, those of us here and those of you there. We are co-creators.

Your world, your planet, can be a sparkling miracle. Even though it has taken ages, generations and thousands of years to get to where you are today, what you need to know is that you are there and it is time. It is time for you to awaken, it is time for you to open your eyes and realize and see things as they truly are, as they truly were in the beginning. How it was meant to be from the beginning and how things along the way got so distorted that all the original facts were forgotten. Now you will find out the truth, the truth of your origins. The truth of your history, the truth of the way it really was. This is what is hidden in those tablets. This is what is there. It is there for you to find and for you to know.

Now we will go, leaving with you this message, leaving it in love and leaving you with the strength and the energy to carry on. We send you love and gratitude for all that you do helping to heal your planet now and in the future.

THANK YOU

I want to thank each and every one of you for your willingness to take part in all the healing projects we have carried out this year. The response has been wonderful and I feel that we have come together as a community of healers to do great things! I've been so impressed with everyone's response and enthusiasm.

I also want to thank those again who took part in the Remote Viewing Session. I think it was fascinating and I'm sure we will do it again sometime.

Together we are truly changing the world!

REQUEST

In light of what happened on flight 253, during the holidays, I would like to request that we add the country of YEMEN to our Country and Location list.

This country seems to be a hot bed of terrorists.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

I want to wish each and every one of you a fantastic New Year, filled with love, joy, abundance and peace!

I believe 2010 will be an exciting year full of many surprises!
