NORTH KOREA MAY LAUNCH NEW MISSILES

SEOUL, South Korea - North Korea on Friday vowed to retaliate if punitive U.N. sanctions are imposed for its latest nuclear test, and U.S. officials said there are new signs Pyongyang may be planning more long-range missile launches. With tensions rising, the communist nation punctuated its barrage of rhetoric with yet another short-range missile launch - the sixth this week.

Perhaps more significantly, officials in Washington said there are indications of increased activity at a site used to fire long-range missiles.

HEALING GROUPS AND SITUATIONS

DPH Guides 5/30/09

Many times you will want to use DivinePeaceHealing™ to heal not only a group, but include a situation or event. As an example let's say you were involved in the purchase of a home or property, or a loved one was making a purchase. You want everything to flow smoothly and the transaction to be completed in the most positive manner possible.

To heal a group and situation, by intent you join all people applicable to the group situation in the healing. The people involved create the situation. As an example, if you were purchasing a home, the documents, bank (building), escrow company (building), Mother Earth and any personal property, are really unimportant. What is important are the people involved because they create the situation. Group all the people involved in the transaction, together. Not just the buyer(s) and seller(s) but all the people. Include the people at the title company, the people at the lending institution, the real estate agents, anyone involved.

About Us

The easiest way to do this is to name the group at the beginning of the healing.

E-mail Us

- 1) "I hereby set the intention to group all of the people together that are involved or will have any effect on xxxxx situation. This group is to be called xxxxx group for this healing."
- 2) "I hereby set the intent to heal xxxxx group and xxxxx situation."

In this way, you are setting the intent at the beginning of the healing, to group all people involved in this situation and do a healing on them. You are also setting the intention of healing the situation or the transaction, whatever it is.

The imprints, souls not crossed, curses and hexes and Mother Earth's pain, aren't necessary in this type of healing. What is important are the people involved that create this situation.

When you are healing a location or country where you have many people involved, then it is necessary in order to bring peace, to begin from the bottom up. Realize that a situation is transitory, in other words it is not on-going. Healing a country or location is something that is permanent in nature and on-going.

Q&A

HEALING COUNTRIES AND LOCATIONS

DPH Guides - May 30, 2009

QUESTION: Why would I want to do my DPH healing on just a certain location or country? Wouldn't it just be easier to do the entire world and that way cover everyone, everywhere?

ANSWER: The answer to this lies with the imprints and not the healing energy. Realize that imprints consist layer upon layer in an area, and over the entire planet. Some areas of course are going to have a much greater concentration of these imprints, thus that many more layers.

CHANGING
FOR
GENERATIONS

To explain this we wish you to think of the layers of an onion. You must peel off the first layer to get to the next. Then again you must peel off that layer to get to the one underneath it, and on it goes. In other words you cannot peel off all the layers at once, you must do so one layer at a time.

It is the same with imprints. You must transform one layer, so that another may be exposed. If you were trying to do this with the entire world at one time, the progress would be extremely slow and the areas that need it most, would probably not be receiving the help fast enough.

If on the other hand you do healings on countries or localities that are having the greatest difficulties you begin immediately to transform the layers of imprints in that precise area so that they begin to receive immediate help.

So it isn't that sending healing to a large area such as the world, means that the healing energy will be diluted. Not at all. Each area will get healing energy in the same strength and amount. It has to do with the layers of imprints in the area.

We would suggest that in your healing of countries and locations that you first try to focus on those troubled areas on your planet that are causing the most destruction and devastation. The ones that are most likely to trigger wars among nations.

You can do as many locations as you want, what we are suggesting is that you focus on the most troubled areas first. In this way you help bring about peace faster.

Charging for Healings

The question has been asked, "Can we charge for DivinePeaceHealings?"

I don't see any reason these healings could not be charged for like any other healing.

In other words you might have a client that wants their family healed, or friends. They might want a healing on a group and situation. This would be a service like any other healing.

If you have any ideas about this or have suggestions on what you think the charge for a healing of this type should be, please let me know.
