Red Cross Aid Worker Freed in Philippines after 6 Months OC Register 7/15/09

Gaunt, exhausted and barely able to walk due to a hernia, the 62-year-old engineer did not believe his al-Qaida-linked captors when they told him he would finally be freed - until a government negotiator showed up Sunday morning to escort him away.

NOTE: The reason I've included this is, what if, just what if, our healing energy was just enough to tip the scales of securing this man's freedom. In reading the article you will see that everyone was shocked that he was freed.

REVISITING "ALL THE BODIES OF WATER ON THE PLANET"

I would like to revisit this subject because I think it is so important. I could also feel during communication with the guides, the importance they attached to it. Please take note also of what they said about more detail on this in the future.

"You may also want to create a group including all the bodies of waters on your planet, such as oceans, rivers, ponds, lakes and streams. By stating in your intention "all bodies of water on the planet" you cover all of them. This would be a C&L healing. We realize in the step of sending love to the "collective consciousness" there may be few people living on bodies of water, but do not leave this step out.

Think what this could accomplish. Water, as you probably know, is imprinted and conducts energy extremely easily. You can certainly imagine the number of imprints that are in this water. Because imprints hold negative energy, think how this might be affecting the pollution in your water and streams. Pollution will be covered in more detail in the months ahead, when you are ready, and the world is ready. Until then, including bodies of water on your C&L list would be a wonderful start.

12 MORE DAYS ON TALIBAN-ALQUAIDA HEALINGS

It doesn't seem possible that those 75 days of healings are winding down, with only 12 days left. For those of you who didn't know, at the beginning of this project I used my Pendulum and asked what percentage difference we could make if each one of us could do one healing per day. The answer came back 10%

At the end of the 75 days, I will again use my Pendulum and find out what the actual percentage is at that time. I think this will be very interesting.

At the beginning we hoped each of us could do one healing per day, but everyone has busy lives and each one of us does what we can.

When this project is over I would like to start a new one. Each one of you can have a say in what you would like to choose. We'll make a choice and then I'll use the Pendulum again to see what % of difference we can make in a certain number of days. Then we'll figure out the days and go for it!

Besides creating peace in the world, I want these projects to be fun and I know the guides want these projects to be fun.

So start thinking about some ideas for the next project.
