CAPTORS RELEASE VIDEO OF MISSING US SOLDIER

Reporting from Kabul, Afghanistan, and Washington -- Posing an emotional new complication for the expanding U.S. military effort in Afghanistan, Islamic militants released a video of a captured American soldier whom U.S. military officials identified for the first time Sunday as Pvt. Bowe R. Bergdahl, 23, of Ketchum, Idaho.

The video marked the first time that militants have sought to take advantage of Bergdahl's June 30 capture to mount a propaganda attack on President Obama's decision to escalate U.S. involvement in the war.

IMPACT: Mexican drug cartels expand abroad

AP Tue Jul 21 2:29 pm ET

GUATEMALA CITY - Mexican drug traffickers are branching out as never before - spreading their tentacles into 47 nations, including the U.S., Guatemala and even Colombia, long the heart of the drug trade in Latin America.

The expansion comes amid a military crackdown in Mexico and the arrests of major Colombian suppliers and poses a new challenge for efforts to stop the flow of drugs into the United States.

make a 10% difference. Soon this time will be up and I've sent out e-mails to all DPH Healers asking for suggestions for the next project.

Anyone not able or not wishing to take part in the next project, please let me know. This way you won't be bothered with me sending you e-mails each week for a tally.

I'm getting rather excited not only about a new project, but about checking to see how much of a difference we've made. The next Newsletter will include the percentage.

DO YOU HAVE FAVORITE SYMBOLS?

I knew I had favorite symbols and then several people told me they did too. Then I asked other DPH healers and sure enough it seems each one had favorites. Some seemed to have favorites in the beginning and then they changed later on.

Some healers get a rush of "feelings" when they looked at certain symbols. Others felt energy from them. I find this very interesting, and maybe when we are all together some time we will want to discuss this.
