Journalists freed from N. Korea return to U.S.

Wed Aug 5, 2009 8:50am EDT

LOS ANGELES, Aug 5 (Reuters) - Two American journalists freed by North Korea from months of detention returned to U.S. soil early on Wednesday accompanied by former President Bill Clinton, who negotiated their release with North Korean leader Kim Jong-il.

Note: I can't tell you how happy this makes me! Last night 3 of us discussing this before Circle cheered and gave a "thumbs up" as we discussed this event. We all somehow felt that we helped and took part in it.

CIUDAD JUAREZ, CHIHUAHUA, MEXICO

Since 1993, more than 500 women and girls have been murdered and more than 70 remain missing in Ciudad Juárez, Chihuahua, Mexico. A lot of these women are used as sex slaves or drug mules and are kidnapped and tortured. Many of the corpses found in the dessert were decapitated and marked with a "V".

When I went to the dessert where some of the bodies were dumped I could feel the spirits of the women there. (They are not crossing to the other side because they want justice. I was told that by a shaman in England that I met at the Goddess conference in Glastonbury, England.) I have been following this story since 2000 and wrote a movie for HBO and have spoken to several healers/psychics who have told me that the police and some members of the Mexican government are involved and know who the main culprits are.

I have also been told the drug lords involved in this use black magic and other dark forces to protect themselves from being caught. The fear surrounding the city of Ciudad Juarez also feeds the dark energies that keep the drug dealers safe from being persecuted. There is a lot of dark energy surrounding Mexico right now, but a lot of the darkness is in the border town of Ciudad Juarez because that's where the drugs get into the U.S., the main entry point.

Note: Thanks to Josefina for contributing this article. I knew there was a problem, but certainly didn't realize the extent of it until now. AND this is right at our border, just miles from us.

If the Mexican Drug Cartel is not on your healing list, it would be a great idea to add it now! What I would suggest is that you add the "Mexican Drug Cartel" to your G&O list, and Mexico and the city of Ciudad Juarez to your C&L list. In this way you can send souls to the light, and all the other clearings.

North Korea

6/11/09 Excerpt from Communication with the Guides on North Korea

" We want you to realize this is critical on a global level and you and your group can help.

There needs to be healings done on locations/countries. This is very important in this case, because the land is permeated - literally permeated with the past and the present. All this needs to begin to be lifted to help. It is critical in this case.

Think of the past war and all the imprints of pain and suffering. Think of the pain Mother Earth has in this area alone. The reason we communicated with you yesterday, is that your group might see themselves as small and insignificant. This is not the truth and the reality. You are beginning to change the world and we want you to realize this. It is important. "

Q: "If we cannot do a healing for a short period of time, for example 3 days, may we then do these healings back to back to catch up?"

A: Absolutely. You may do as many healings back to back as you want. The goal of the project is to do 7 per week. This of course averages out to 1 per day, but this doesn't mean you have to do that one each and every day. You can do them whenever, wherever you get the chance.

This allows for flexibility. What counts and what is important, are the healings sent. They are not meant to be sent at a structured time. I feel remiss for not explaining this earlier.
