Unfortunately I know exactly what these people are going through, because I've lived it myself. My home in northern California burned to the ground in a forest fire in 1987. It was a total loss - nothing was left, absolutely nothing. The people that have lost their homes and all their possessions, sometimes their pets, will need extreme courage and faith to get through the next few months and beyond. They will literally need to start over again and deal with shock, sorrow, insurance agents and adjusters - the list goes on. They will need to find a place to live and face the decision of whether to rebuild. If we could add "All the areas burned in the California fires of August/September 2009" to our Country and Locations list we will be giving these people a tremendous gift!

I am quoting her below: " I've often wondered over the last several weeks during the healings "how" all these steps could take place over the entire planet. It seems like such a large task. I guess I think that way because I'm human. Then last night as I sat down to do the healing I immediately felt this strong energy around me and recognized that someone wanted to channel with me. several times I heard minions and Dominions. I thought at first that they were the same words and I was just confusing them. But they said no, they meant both. They said that minions worked with/for us and the Dominion's were in our charge.

When they said "minions" I could see very small angelic energies that were incredibly infinite. And the "Dominions" I could see huge, massive, angelic type energies. Not actual angels per se but their energies. And what I find the most curious is that they said when we state our "prayers" or "commands" for world healing and peace the Dominions are the ones who make it happen. They were very specific about that. And although they didn't say it I got the impression that they only carry out our commands for this purpose.

They showed me in pictures that our world has a set way of working and for miracles to occur (which is what we are doing) only the most powerful angels can make this happen. In the past only God himself could command these angels to do things here on earth and sadly many things they did were frightening to humans because they didn't understand. The Dominions then told me that because of what's happening with humanity now that God has given certain people the gift of directly giving commands to these angels, but again only for the purposes of world peace. It is a gift not to be abused.

They basically wanted to introduce themselves to us. I feel like it's similar to an iceberg. The small portion above water that we see are the DPH guides and the massive bulk of the iceberg under the water are the Dominions. I could almost see the earth being completely saturated in angelic energy each time we do a Divine Peace Healing."

Margaret Note: This is so interesting because it fits in with much of what I've been told; that we've been gifted with this healing and that the symbols are powerful beyond our comprehension.

In looking up the angel hierarchy, this is the description I found:
"The Dominions (lat. dominatio, pl. dominationes) hold the task of regulating the duties of lower angels. It is only with extreme rarity that the angelic lords make themselves physically known to mortals. They are also the angels who preside over nations."

REQUEST

I would like to request any DPH healers who wish to do so, to add to their C&L list "the Pyramids at Giza." I can't give you any specifics on this other than to say at our Tuesday Night Circle on 9/1/09 (this is a circle that is not related to DPH) some very interesting things came through.

When I arrived home, more came through and it was communicated to me that healings were needed on "the Pyramids at Giza." I am relaying this information to all of you. When I receive more specifics on this, I'll let you know. Because it seemed important to the guides, I'm passing on this information.
